

FPI46: The Gitty

A headland path linking Deepdale Lane and Hall Lane

Length: 0.5km (0.3 mile)

At the junction of Welton Road (A46) and Deepdale Lane, pass through the wicket gate and cross the first field, keeping to the edge with the hedge on your left.

At the corner of the field, the footpath continues with a hedge on the left and an area of woodland on the right, rising gradually to finally emerge onto Hall Lane.

Snowdrops on Hall Lane near FPI46: The Gitty

BW147: The Park

Headland path from Lodge Lane to either Mill Hill, or linking with BW520 to Greetwell Lane

Length: 2.5km (1.5 miles)

At the bridge on Lodge Lane, turn right and take the path along the field edge, which follows the southern perimeter of Mulsanne Park and the next field.

At the junction with BW520, turn right and follow the hedge to the field corner. Pass at the rear of Parkside, turn right onto The Dales and take the path rising to the gate on Mill Hill.

Final section of BW147 The Park descending to Mill Hill

FP 166: The Heath

Fieldpath between Deepdale Lane and Heath Road

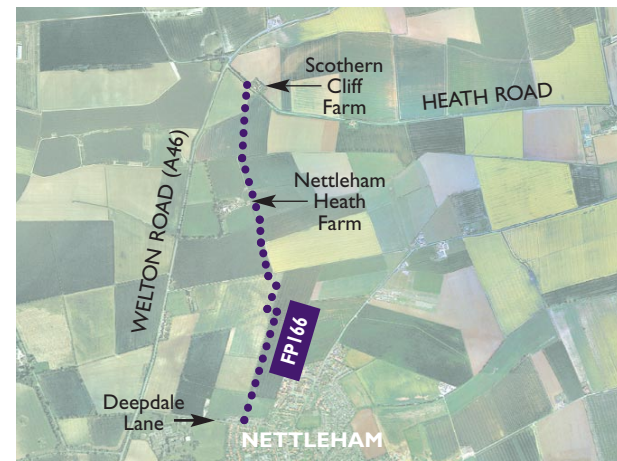

Length: 2.5km (1.5 miles)

The path starts between numbers 36 and 38 Deepdale Lane in Nettleham.

Walk along the hedge and 25m short of the end of the second field, turn left and then right through the hedge, continuing in the same line. Follow the established footpath to join Nettleham Heath Farm track and cross the final field to emerge onto Heath Road near Scothern Cliff Farm House.

Approaching Nettleham Heath Farm on FPI166: The Heath

FP 149: The Scothern

Fieldpath across arable land, linking Nettleham with Scothern

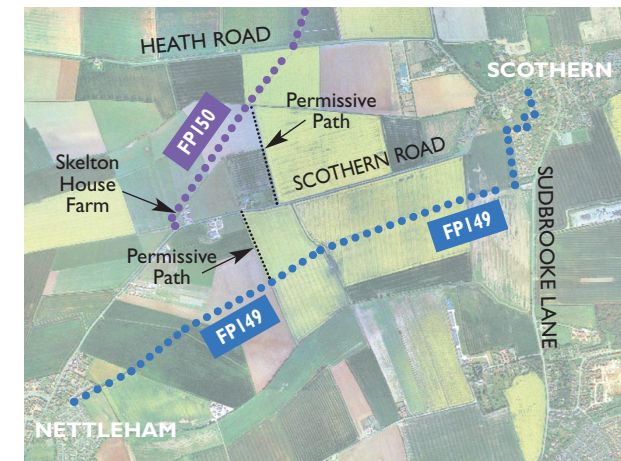

Length: 3km (2.4 miles)

The path starts near the junction of Highfields and High Leas in Nettleham.

Keeping to the left field edge for the first two fields, follow the established footpath across four fields, crossing three wooden footbridges on the way. At this point, you may turn left along a permissive path to return to Nettleham via Scothern Road, or continue on a second permissive path to join FPI150.

Permissive path to Scothern Road from FPI149: The Scothern

Lincoln Cathedral seen from FPI44: Riseholme Field

FPI44: Riseholme Field

Fieldpath linking Washdyke Lane and Riseholme Lane

Length: 0.5km (0.3 mile)

At the junction of Lincoln Road and Washdyke Lane, pass through the gate and keep on the left side of the field boundary.

Cross the second field on the established fieldpath, which meets Riseholme Lane at the top of a hill.

Fine views of Lincoln Cathedral may be seen across the fields.

Lincoln Cathedral from BW520: Greetwell

BW520: Greetwell

Bridleway across arable land, linking to BW147 from Greetwell Lane

Length: 2.0km (1.25 miles)

From Greetwell Lane, join the surfaced farm road with the hedge on your left. At the second field entrance, turn left over the bridge, then immediately right. Now with the hedge on your right, follow the path to the corner of the field and turn left, keeping the hedge to your right, until reaching the junction with BW147.

The footbridge across Scothern Beck on FPI150: Skelton Corner

FPI150: Skelton Corner

Mainly in Scothern parish, from Skelton House Farm, through meadowland and across arable farmland to Heath Road

Length: 2.0km (1.25 miles)

At Skelton Corner, on Scothern Road, proceed through the first farm gate and immediately right over a stile. Follow the right-hand hedge to a second stile, then follow the established path across the field to the footbridge over Scothern Beck. Cross the last field diagonally on the established footpath to Heath Road.

St Germain's Church at the end of FPI149 The Scothern

Follow the path over the next field and cross a wooden footbridge by two large ash trees. Continue across the next field, turning left at the far corner of the field and then right, emerging into 'The Alders' in Scothern.

Turn left and then right between house numbers 8 and 10 and take the path to the left. Continue across a small park, keeping the hedge on the right and through a wicket gate in the corner, eventually emerging between Red Rose Villa and Brinkburn House, near St Germain's Parish Church, on Church Street, Scothern.

Countryside Walks in and around Nettleham

A series of 12 walks along the footpaths, fieldpaths and bridleways in and around the village of Nettleham

This publication will assist you in finding your way as you enjoy walking in the countryside in and around the village of Nettleham.

There are twelve footpaths, fieldpaths and bridleways featured in this publication:

FP234/946 Beckside

BW219 Green Lane

FP145 The Scotches

FP143 The Meadows

FP142 Danby Hill

FP146 The Gitty

FP144 Riseholme Field

BW147 The Park

BW520 Greetwell

FP149 The Scothern

FP150 Skelton Corner

FP166 The Heath

Please ensure that you stay on the established paths, close gates behind you and keep dogs under close control at all times

FP234/FP946: Beckside

FP234 is a surfaced footpath along Beckside from Watermill Lane to Church Street. FP946, a stone-surfaced path, continues east from Church Street following The Beck to Vicarage Lane.

Length: 0.5km (0.3 mile)

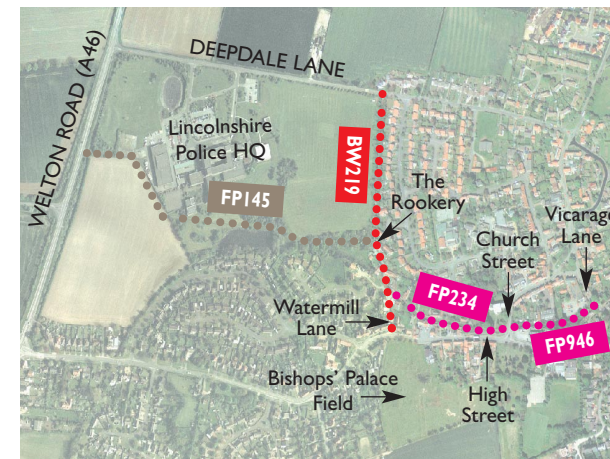

FP234/946: Beckside leads from Watermill Lane to Vicarage Lane

BW219: Green Lane

A bridleway between High Street and Deepdale Lane.

Length: 0.4km (0.25 mile)

The entrance to FP145: The Scotches

FP145: The Scotches

A path through the grounds of the Lincolnshire Police HQ, with a fieldpath on to Welton Road

Length: 0.8km (0.5 mile)

From High Street, proceed down Watermill Lane, cross the Beck by a bridge and into The Rookery.

Turn left through the gate (wheelchair access) and follow the footpath. Turn right at the field and keep to the right-hand edge. Turn left at the top of the field and continue to Welton Road.

FP143: The Meadows

Fieldpath which follows the hedgeside and Nettleham Beck between Cherry Tree Lane and Lincoln Road (A46).

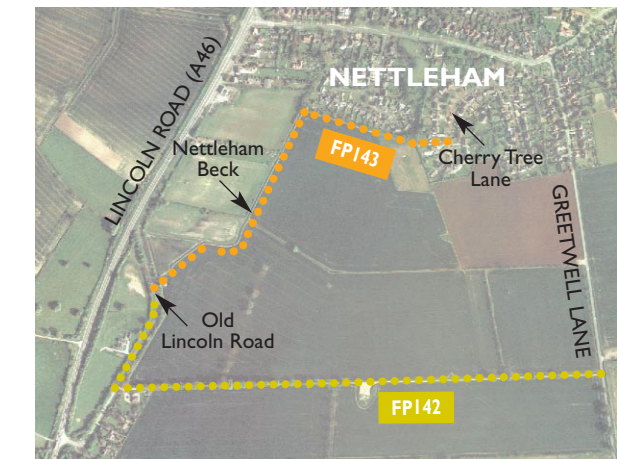

Length: 0.9km (0.5 mile)

The path starts between numbers 17 and 18 Cherry Tree Lane in Nettleham.

On entering the field, keep to the right-hand edge and turn left on reaching the Beck. Follow the course of the Beck to the spring and then join the old Lincoln Road at the field access near a group of trees.

FP143: The Meadows follows the course of Nettleham Beck

FP142: Danby Hill a headland farm track across fields

FP142: Danby Hill

Farm track linking Greetwell Lane and Lincoln Road (A46).

Length: 0.8km (0.5 mile)

Leave Nettleham in a southerly direction on Greetwell Lane and, at the second field boundary from the village, turn right.

Follow the headland farm track, keeping the hedge to your right. The path gradually rises to the summit of a hill, from where it descends to join a section of the old Lincoln Road.

Lincoln Cathedral can be seen across the fields from the path.

Please remember...

The countryside is a place where people live and work and where wildlife makes its home. To protect the Lincolnshire countryside for other visitors, please respect it and always follow the Countryside Code.

Thank you.

- Be safe: plan ahead and follow signs
- Guard against all risk of fire
- Safeguard water supplies
- Leave gates and property as you find them
- Keep dogs under close control
- Keep to the paths across farmland
- Avoid damaging fences, hedges and walls
- Protect wildlife, plants and trees
- Leave no litter
- Take care on country roads
- Consider other people

Most of all enjoy your visit to the Lincolnshire countryside

If you encounter any problems whilst on these walks, please let us know so that it may be rectified.

Published by Nettleham Parish Council in association with the Parish Paths Partnership

Aerial photographs reproduced courtesy of Lincolnshire County Council, copyright Lincolnshire County Council and Getmapping plc